THE IRON INTEREST.—The Wheeling Intelligencer of yesterday announces that all the nail mills in Wheeling are now running at the old price for puddling, nine dollars and twenty-five cents per ton.

THE gold watch presented to Speaker Hall, of the State Senate, on Saturday last, by the members of the Senate, is the second he has received at the hands of his fellow Senators, the first watch being presented through Heister Clymer, Senator from Berks county, at the close of the session of 1862.

GREAT OIL RECEIPTS.—During the past four days the receipts of petroleum at the port of Pittsburgh have reached the unprecedented amount of ninety-seven thousand two hundred and eighty-four barrels—the greatest amount ever received in the same duration of time since the establishment of the oil business. This would indicate that the oil yield has not diminished to any remarkable extent.

THE Norwich Bulletin, Republican, has a somewhat remarkable article on the Connecticut election, and the causes of the adverse result—chief among them being the harsh and intolerant course pursued toward a class of Republicans—as, for instance, the following:

"They have been especially exercised with regard to Senator Foster, about whom they have said very hard things, accusing him, among other things, of taking no part in the canvass, and even of voting for Mr. English, or for a split ticket. The facts are simply that he never was asked to make a speech, but was studiously neglected by the very men who complain of his inactivity; and so far as voting is concerned, he voted an open unscratched Republican ballot. Moreover, we know that he desired, most earnestly, the success of the Republican ticket, and was ready to do anything to promote it."

The Republicans of the country will be glad to hear of Mr. Foster's fidelity to his party.

IT is high time that writing funny should be reduced to an art. Some of the elementary principles involved are already beginning to be recognized. Very good imitations of the real thing, too, are now made up, with a skill and cunning that challenge admiration. There is no great mystery about it either. Granted a good measure of conceit, two or three elements of malice and just brains enough to combine the two, and a little practice will do the rest. Puns now-a-days can be had, at wholesale rates, for two dollars or so a hundred, warranted uncracked jokes. A man is a fool, therefore, who will make them for himself. Then there are topics which are common property to the whole community of jokers. We need scarcely instance them. Who, for example, will not smile at the sly allusion to the current rates of putty on 'Change? A funeral procession might be forced into unseemly laughter by a masterly use of putty. There is a world of humor yet in this same putty.

The "small boy" too, has youth and vigor enough yet to play his part in a good deal of funny writing. The truth is, justice is hardly done this individual of late years. Here is a chance for some modern joker to make capital out of the treasures of the past.

But enough for details. O, for some master spirit of fun to rise and discover to us the grand Nestorian principles of his art! O, to be taught how to make people, and especially ourselves laugh,—for who enjoys a funny thing more than its lawful parent?—not by the groping, blundering sibylline suggestions of unsophisticated nature, but by the rules of perfected art!

Return Ramrod.

That slender appendage to firearms, which the soldier always finds so awkward to handle, and so troublesome to keep in time of battle, is destined to go into oblivion. Although war has been one of the world's principal branches of business, it has never known, till Jonathan taught it, at which end of a gun it is best to introduce the charge. The great powers are now altering their fire-arms from muzzle to breech-loaders. More than two millions of their muskets are undergoing the operation now. No more cartridge biting, no more drawing ramrod in the manual, nothing but breech loading. Great are the improvements in war. Great is the triumph of mechanical science. All that remains to be achieved is to load the guns by machinery and to fire them by electricity. War will then have reached the pinnacle of perfection since all the noise could still be retained, and armies of vulnerable and mortal men could be dispensed with on both sides.

LARGE CROPS LOOKED FOR.—Those who pretend to be weatherwise, predict that we will be blessed with heavy crops the ensuing season. It has been noticed, says the Franklin Repository, that whenever a heavy fall of snow occurs about the time of full moon, in February, large crops and an abundance of everything were sure to follow. We trust that in the present instance there will be no deviation from the custom. Rich and poor will be gratified to see large supplies the coming summer.

THE committee from the Fenian centers of Ireland, England and Scotland, have made a report concerning their unsuccessful efforts to bring about a union of the Roberts and Stephens wings of the organization in this country. They lay the blame on the Stephens faction, and at the end of the address they call upon their countrymen to rally around them and give them, through President Roberts, their support. We recommend Irishmen not to rally around anybody, but to go on quietly attending to their own pursuits. They have seen what all the Fenian pother amounts to.

ACCORDING to the Paris correspondent of the London Times, public opinion has become more speculative and perplexed on the subject of the Prussian treaties and the Luxemburg question. Bavaria, Baden and Wurtemburg were reluctant to make over their military forces to Prussia, and place them exclusively under her control, but their scruples subsided when Bismarck demonstrated to them the desire that France had to augment her territory at the expense of Baden and Bavaria, and to shut out Wurtemburg from the free navigation of the Rhine. Considerable uneasiness and surprise was felt at the silence of the Moniteur on the subject. The semi-official denial of La France of the statement that negotiations were pending relative to the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg are discredited.

THE WHEAT CROP.—The Cincinnati Gazette ays: The new crop of wheat will come upon a market more bare than has been experienced 'or a great many years. This being the case, t is particularly pleasant to know that the growing wheat crop was never more promising. n some sections the breadth of land planted was not as large as usual, owing to the great carcity of seed, but there is, nevertheless, a air average of land under winter wheat, and if he harvest turns out as well as it now promses, we shall have a large yield. The crop is f course still liable to suffer, but let it suffice or the present, that the prospects are excellent nd the season decidedly favorable.

A CITIZEN has had an "interview" with fr. Johnson, who reports thus: "The Presi ent said that the Democratic party seemed ent on destruction—that they had neither olicy nor wisdom. That they had shown bad ith in their want of adherence to the princiles of the Philadelphia Convention; that if ey had faithfully stood by the correct platrm there enunciated, and had in good faith lopted the doctrines there proclaimed, it ould have been by dropping its identity, a foridable and irresistible party. He thought at the party which had opposed the war was effete body, and that no class of men who id quietly acquiesced in the disruption of the nion could ever even expect to control the gislation of the country."

WEST VIRGINIA OIL DEVELOPMENT.—The arkersburg Times states that "reliable adces from the Burning Spring oil region present ample assurances that the prospects of ineasing facilities for transporting oil to this arket has already given an unusual impetus the efforts of oil producers. More than forty w wells are now going down on Burning ring run. A much larger amount of work is w laid out in the development of oil than was rformed last year, and it cannot be doubted at this rich oil field will yield a handsome ren upon the increased investment before the ason is over. There is nothing that will stimte the efforts of oil diggers so much as the spect of getting a prompt return from oil duction through the medium of increased and eapened transportation facilities."

THE ERIE COAL TRADE.—It is stated that in exportation of coal, Erie ranks second in United States. The amount of the export de during the season of 1866 was 251,317 s, of which about 25,000 tons was anthrae, and the remainder bituminous. The entire de amounted to 377,990 tons. The soft or uminous coal is obtained from Mercer, Lawce and Butler counties, and is shipped via Erie and Pittsburgh Railroad and the Pennvania and Erie canal to the docks in Erie, ence it is taken by vessels to the ports on upper lakes—mostly to Chicago. The urn freights are made up from the iron ores Lake Superior. The freight and the tolls on canal during the season of 1866 were from 75 to $2 50 per ton, according to distance, the tariff by the railway was about 2½ ts per mile, while lake freights for coal to icago ranged from $1 25 to $1 50 per ton. port of Cleveland is the only competing of any importance for the shipment of coal.

THE RUSSIAN CESSION TREATY.

Thad. Stevens Delighted With It.

Constitutionality of the Reconstruction Act.

THE TENURE OF OFFICE BILL.

Continued Illness of the President.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Commercial.

WASHINGTON, April 11, 1867.

Cincinnati Postmastership.

The President nominated to the Senate today Hunter Brook as Postmaster at Cincinnati. The nomination was duly referred to the Postoffice Committee. Confirmation doubtful.

The Russian Treaty.

Thad. Stevens has written a letter to Secretary Seward, warmly approving the ratification of the Russian cession treaty, and congratulating him on the vote by which it was confirmed in the Senate.

The Reconstruction Act.

The Chronicle to-day says that nine thousand dollars have been subscribed by Senators and members for the distribution of political documents throughout the South. It is intimated to-night that the Supreme Court will render a decision in the Mississippi injunction case to restrain the enforcement of the Reconstruction Act, the moment the argument closes, in which the application will be dismissed on the ground that the court has no original jurisdiction in the premises. The principal precedent for the decision is that made by the Supreme Court in the case of Dorr, of the Rhode Island rebellion. The court has been in possession informally of the printed briefs and arguments in the case for more than a week. The same counsel will be followed in the Georgia case. This application, however, which will be filed to-morrow, is directed against Secretary Stanton, and Generals Grant and Pope. Judge Black, Charles O'Connor and Edgar Cowan, ex-Senator, are the counsel.

Exequater Revoked.

The President transmitted to the Senate today a long correspondence relative to the revocation of the Exequater of Janssen, Consul of Oldenburg, for New York city. Janssen was sued for debt, and refused to appear in court, pleading the privilege allowed by law in this regard to foreign representatives. The President thereupon declared that it was an attempt to defeat the ends of justice through official position, and refused to recognize him. Janssen made a vigorous effort to get reinstated, and the Department re-examined the whole case, but refused him. The exchange of letters between the Russian Minister and Secretary Seward, on the matter, are quite spicy. The matter having been brought to the attention of the Senate, that body called for all the papers in the case.

Gen. Rousseau's Appointment.

The Senate spent most of its time to-day on the question of reconsidering the nomination of General Rousseau as Brigadier General in the regular army, and finally confirmed him by a majority of nine votes. This is the last recommendation that can be made.

Newspaper Suspension.

The evening Leader, a new radical paper started two months ago, suspended publication this evening. It promises to resume at some future day.

Appointments.

It is understood that Mr. Sumner's resolution in the Senate, to-day, had reference to an opinion of Attorney General Stanbery, read by him in Executive session, yesterday, to the effect that the provisions of the tenure of office bill were prospective only, and did not apply to vacancies existing at the time the bill was passed. Under this view of the case, should the Senate adjourn without confirming appointments to fill vacancies existing at the time the law was passed, the President can at once make appointments to fill them. This may cause the Senate to sit until all the vacancies of importance are filled.

The President

Is much better to-day and was able to attend to business in his office. Secretaries Welles, Browning, McCulloch, Attorney General Stanbery and Postmaster General Randall had interviews with him this morning. A number of visitors were present, but none were admitted, the President not yet being able to receive them.

Indian Treaty Ratified.

The Senate has ratified the treaty recently made with the Chippewa bands of Mississippi Indians, now residing in Minnesota, providing for the sale of a portion of the lands occupied by them and for other reservations to be set apart for their use.

WASHINGTON, April 11, 1867.

THE QUESTION OF ADJOURNMENT.

It is the opinion of some of the ablest lawyers that the Senate should not, under the provisions of the civil tenure bill, adjourn until all vacancies have been filled by Presidential appointment and Senatorial confirmation. In some cases the Senate has rejected as many as three nominations for the same office.

NOMINATIONS.

The President sent a large number of nominations to the Senate to-day, including Hunter Brooke, postmaster at Cincinnati.

THE TEST CASES.

In the Supreme Court, this afternoon, Mr. O'Conner asked leave to place in the hands of the Clerk, the bill of complaint of the State of Georgia, to enjoin Secretary Stanton, General Grant and General Pope from executing the act for the more efficient government of the rebel States, and which he would, to-morrow, ask leave to file. The Court replied that the gentleman might now file his motion for leave. Attorney General Stanberry, as law officer of the Government, gave notice that he should be ready to resist the motion. This bill differed from that of Mississippi in the fact that the President is not named. He felt it his duty to say the Secretary of War desired he should take on himself the entire management of the case on the part of the defense. The Court, in reply to an expressed desire that an arrangement be made so both cases, Mississippi and Georgia, be heard to-morrow, and the order of argument be understood, said it would think about the matter, but was not now prepared to make a definite statement.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The President will to-morrow send to the Senate the documents relating to the interposition of this Government in behalf of Maximilian, should he fall into the hands of the Liberals.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate to-day confirmed Lovell H. Rousseau, Brigadier General in the army; also, the following postmasters:

Joseph J. Wyatt, St. Joseph, Mo.; John B. Alexander, Lexington, Mo.; H. D. Cowles, Washington, Iowa; O. C. Easton, Havana, Ill.; P. C. Stevens, Springfield, Mo.; Geo. L. Williams, Carrollton, Ill.

Receiver of Public Monies—John L. Carson, Boonville Nebraska.

Indian Agent—Wm. P. Callan, of Illinois, for Omaha Agency.

REJECTIONS.

The Senate rejected the following nominations: Pension Agent—Jacob Gilestrop, Macon City, Missouri.

Collector of Internal Revenue—Jas. H. Gilmore, Fifth District, Missouri.

Postmaster—Frederick B. Lyle, Jeffersonville, Ind.; Jno. McPhetridge, Bloomington, Ind.; Wm. Lawther, Wyandotte, O.; Albert G. Clark, Teledo, O.

SAMPLES OF WOOL.

A cabinet containing distinctive samples of wool is now at the Treasury Department. The President of the National Wool Growers' Association are invited to visit Washington to examine the samples.

TREATY RATIFIED.

The Senate ratified the treaty recently made with the Chippewa bands of Mississippi Indians now residing in Minnesota providing for sale of a portion of the lands occupied by them, and for other reservations to be set apart for their uses.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION.

It is understood Senator Sumners's resolution to-day had reference to an opinion of Attorney General Stanberry read by Mr. Buckalew in executive session yesterday, to the effect that the provisions of the Tenure of Office Bill were prospective only, and did not apply to vacancies existing at the time the bill passed.

DE HARO CASE CONCLUDED.

The Supreme Court to-day concluded hearing of the De Haro case.

DEBATE ON RUSSIAN TREATY.

It is understood the Senate, in executive session to-day, refused to allow the debate on the Russian-American treaty to be published. Several of the Senators, it is said, read written speeches. The vote against such publication was about the same as in favor of the treaty.

HARRISBURG.

A Happy Occasion.

Adjournment of the Legislature.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

HARRISBURG, April 11, 1867.

SENATE.

Act to change the rates of interest, and act allowing parties interested to testify, were both lost.

In accordance with the provision of the Constitution, the Senate proceeded to elect a Speaker, and J. L. Graham, of Allegheny, was elected, the Democrats voting for Wm. A. Wallace.

Speaker Hall, before retiring, made a few remarks, thanking the Senate for their support during his term.

HOUSE.

Mr. Waddel offered a resolution that a Committee be appointed to investigate what interest officers and directors of railroad companies exercised during the Legislature, and that the committee be allowed to file their report with the Clerk of the House before the first day of June. Agreed to.

Mr. Markley offered a resolution of thanks to Speaker Glass. Mr. Meekiing offered a resolution of thanks to the officers of the House. Both were agreed to. Speaker Glass was presented with china and silver sets, gold watch and silver salver from members of both sides and officers. Speeches were made by Waddell, Jones, Davis, Quigley, and Clerks Benedict and McAfee. Speaker Glass, in his remarks, charged the Senate with the responsibility of defeating the free railroad law. At twelve o'clock, he declared the House adjourned sine die.

UNITED STATES SENATE.

Opinions on the Tenure of Office.

SPEECH OF SENATOR SUMNER.

WASHINGTON, April 10, 1867.

The President submitted the credentials of Senator Bayard, who was qualified by taking the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and subscribing to the Congressional oath of loyalty.

Mr. SUMMER offered a resolution that the President be requested to furnish the Senate, if in his opinion compatible, copies of any official opinions which have been given by the Attorney General, Solicitor of the Treasury, or by any other officer of the Government, on the interpretation of the act regulating tenure of office, and especially with regard to appointments by the President to office during the recess of Congress.

Mr. SUMNER understood that an opinion had been given, which went far to nullification of the recent act of Congress. It would thus seem to me we had nullification here in Washington in the executive branches of the government. He understood that according to these opinions, the President was to exercise the power of appointment during the recess of Congress, notwithstanding the recent act of Congress which undertook to regulate the tenure of office. Now all know the astuteness of lawyers, and it was sometimes said lawyers drive a coach and six through an act of Parliament, or even of Congress. Perhaps the administration was about to drive a coach and six through the recent act of Congress. In other words, it was about to force on the country officers who cannot be officers under the laws. It seemed important that before the Senate adjourns, it should know the precise state of the question; they should understand whether any such opinion has been given, and the reasons for it. The resolution was agreed to.

The resolution to print three thousand copies of the Army Register of 1866 was passed. Also, the resolution to print five thousand extra copies of the report on repairs of the Mississippi levees.

Mr. ANTHONY reported back the proposed new rule of the Senate, that all resolutions calling on the Executive or any department for information be first referred to a committee, to report an estimate of the probable expense, and that the report be made without delay.

Mr. CAMERON said there were many reasons why it should not be adopted. He thought they had trouble enough now without being further embarrassed by rules. Objection being made by him, the resolution went over.

Mr. THAYER called up his resolution calling on the President to furnish information about the absence of Gov. Cummings from Colorado Territory; whether he has been paid during such absence, &c.

At the suggestion of Mr. CAMERON, Mr. Thayer consented to let the resolution again go over informally, owing to the absence of Mr. Buckalew.

On motion of Mr. WILLIAMS, the Senate went into executive session.

After a secret session of several hours, Mr. WILLIAMS called up the resolution for adjournment sine die on Wednesday, the 10th inst., and moved to amend by inserting Saturday next.

Mr. HOWE suggested Monday.

Mr. FESSENDEN opposed the resolution. He did not believe the Republicans could answer to their constituents if they went home without waiting for vacancies to be filled.

Mr. CHANDLER was willing to take the responsibility of adjourning now. If Andrew Johnson was an obstacle in the way, it would be found out by July whether or not they could run the government without him. For himself, he would not be driven into confirming copperheads and rebels because otherwise the vacancies would remain unfilled.

Mr. FESSENDEN replied that the President dad as much right to say the Senate stood in his way, as the Senate to say he stood in their way; and as much right to say he would find a way of running the machine without the Senate, as they had. The President did not commit any impeachable offense by nominating officers, but he would if he failed to nominate them. So long as the President preferred to nominate his political friends, the Senate had a right to reject them.

Mr. CONKLIN was willing as long as might be necessary, to induce or compel the President to have some regard for the public interest in the character of the men whom he sent to the Senate for confirmation.

Mr. HOWE was perfectly willing that of two offices one should be filled by the friends of the President and the other by a Republican, but he did not understand that the President was willing that this should be done.

Mr. TRUMBULL hoped the Senate would fix a day for adjournment. The President would then send in nominations for all vacancies.

Mr. SUMNER opposed this, urging the necessity of remaining to see the tenure of office act enforced.

Mr. MORTON favored fixing Monday for adjournment. If the Senate and President could come together at all, they could by Monday at five o'clock. If the President continued to send the Senate one class of nominations, and the Senate continued to reject them, there would be no end to the session. One or the other must yield. Were the Republicans to yield to and confirm Democratic nominations? for one, he said no. Was it supposed the President would yield? He was not in the President's confidence, and could not say. If they both persist, the country will say there was no use in them staying here.

Mr. CAMERON was in favor of fixing a day of adjournment. He would prefer Wednesday at four o'clock. That would afford ample time for business, and give notice to the President what they intended to do. If the President failed to meet them by that time, then they could adjourn and go home.

Mr. RAMSEY hoped the Senate would go into executive session and settle the adjournment question to-morrow.

The Senate, by a vote of 29 against 11, went into executive session and after some time adjourned.

MEXICO.

VERA CRUZ IN A STATE OF SIEGE.

WATER AND PROVISIONS SCARCE.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The steamer Moro Castle brings Havana advices to the 6th. The British mail steamer Solent had returned from Vera Cruz with the cargo which she carried, which could not yet be landed, as the Liberals were bombarding the place, which, it was supposed, could not hold out long. The Imperialists at Vera Cruz were quarreling. Gomez and Cuarez had resigned, and General Toboado was in command. The siege was closely maintained. The water was cut off, and the last bullock in the city killed March 31st.

The United States steamers Taconey and Tahama were at Vera Cruz.

The Havana Diaro reports Maximilian at Cuamanala, but don't state how he got there.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

The Harris-Chandler Prize Fight Yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—The prize fight between Dooney Harris and Tommy Chandler, stakes $5,000, place near this city to-day. The "fancy" from all parts of the Pacific coast have congregated here to witness the fight. An ampitheater to accommodate 5,000 has been erected on the ground. Seats are selling at fabulous prices. The San Jose Railroad is running special trains, and every kind of vehicle used in carrying, are thronged with people.

From Memphis.

MEMPHIS, April 11.—The Franklin Insurance and Banking Company of this city failed to-day. Liabilities estimated at $93,000; assets $120,000.

The Dental Association of the Central States, which has been in session several days, adjourned to-day to meet in Louisville in December.

HIGHLY INTERESTING.

NEW YORK, April 11, 1867.

STRIKES.

The carpenters maintain their strike. They have appointed committees to engage work direct from parties desiring to build. Engagements are made to extend pecuniary aid to those who need it. The wood carvers have resolved to strike. It is stated that the strike of the iron workers of New Jersey was brought about by evil disposed persons without good reason, and there is a prospect of these persons leaving, when the miners will resume work.

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN.

The annual report of the Methodist book concern shows the profits over $30,000. The payment for Bishops' salaries, traveling expenses, &c., were $27,444; total assets of the concern, $682,034, and it owes $126,675.

Kentucky Democratic Convention.

LOUISVILLE, April 11.—The State Convention of Union Democracy, met to-day and organized by electing J. K. Underwood, Chairman. Hon. Aaron Harding was nominated for Governor; Judge W. B. Kinkead, Lieutenant Governor; Jno. M. Harlan, Attorney General. A resolution was adopted sending greeting to Connecticut for the late Democratic victory. A meeting will be held to-night to ratify the nominations made to-day.

A Burglary in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—A burglary was committed this morning on Canal street, and $30,000 worth of jewelry stolen. The thieves were captured and the valuables recovered.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

Gen. Sweeney, of Fenian notoriety, has been rejected by the Senate as Major of the Sixteenth Infantry.

A Philadelphia special says: Quite an excitement and panic occurred in some of our public schools to-day, in consequence of a silly rumor that colored children were to be admitted. Many children informed the teachers that their parents would withdraw them from school if negroes were admitted.

The Methodist Episcopal Conference of New York city has adopted a resolution deprecating the increase of theatrical and other wordly amusements.

A New York special says: There will be a meeting at Tammany Hall next week to indorse the administration in making a treaty for the cession of Russian America. Secretary Seward is expected to make a speech, and the influence thus manufactured is to be used in the House of Representatives when it comes to vote the ten millions of purchase money.

Charles D. Morton, Collector of United States Internal Revenue for Buffalo, died suddenly yesterday morning.

The large distillery of Foote, Nash & Co., corner Pearl and Kilgore streets, Cincinnati, was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire was caused by an explosion in the rear of the building, where stills were being changed. The estimated loss is over one hundred thousand dollars. The amount of insurance is not at present ascertained. Several adjoining buildings were injured to extent of two or three thousand dollars. Covered by insurance.

The steamer from Havana, reports that the Liberals were bombarding Vera Cruz on the 2d instant. Maximilian was reported at Cuernavaca.

A very enthusiastic Fenian meeting was held in St. Louis on Wednesday night. One hundred men joined the Seventh Regiment and a considerable amount of money subscribed.

After a promise to our Government by the Captain General of Cuba, that enlistments in Havana for Maximilian should be stopped, two hundred more enlistments have been made, and the Government has taken the matter up.

A Tribune Washington special says: Chief Justice Chase has turned over all the applications for appointments to registership under the bankrupt law to Marshal Parsons.

Jim Lawler, a lawless citizen of Boston, has challenged Aaron Jones to fight him for one thousand dollars a side.

Two girls, aged fifteen and sixteen years, named Elizabeth Barry and Rosanna McDowell, attempted to commit suicide with laudanum, in New York, Tuesday, because the father of the latter forbid her associating with the former. They are likely to recover.

The last quarterly statement of the New York city National banks shows a decrease of $25,000,000 in their resources compared with the January statement.

A Washington special says: Hon. Thad. Stevens saw all his friends to-day, and, though somewhat feeble, was in unusually fine spirits. He is greatly delighted with the ratification of the Russian treaty by the Senate, and has written Mr. Seward a strong complimentary letter for the part he has acted in the matter.

The St. Louis Democrat's correspondent with Gen. Hancock's Indian expedition, writing from Fort Hooker, March 2d, says: In a council held at Fort Dodge on the 2d ult., between Major Dodge and several chiefs of the Kiowas, the latter professed much friendship for whites, and desired to be at peace with them, but stated that the Blackfeet, Sioux, Cheyennes, Arrapahoes and Camanches are determined on war, and will have it. They spoke about several Northern tribes banding together for war, making overtures to Southern tribes to join them, and predict that the whites would have their hands full. The indications all favor a grand Indian confederation and bloody war.

A Washington special says: Senator Buckalew has read in Executive session an opinion from the Attorney General, that under the tenure of office bill, the President can fill all offices vacant when the Senate adjourns. This was not successfully controverted by the various Senators, and will render necessary a further continuance of the session, or an abandonment of about eighty good offices.

A CHARLESTON letter asserts that Governor Orr's attack on the Democratic party, at the Board of Trade banquet, meets with general indorsement. The Governor, in fact, represents a large, growing sentiment in the State against the Democratic leaders particularly, and the Carolinians having almost abandoned the doctrine of State rights, it is probable they will turn to the other extreme and favor centralization and consolidation. At the conclusion of Gov. Orr's remarks, Mayor Gaillard was so well pleased that he rose from his seat and went to the Governor, between whom and the Mayor a cordial reunion took place over a sparking glass of Heidsick. The present feeling of the whites is in unison with Governor Orr, that is to stand aloof from any party and hold themselves in reserve. The Governor's views on thorough submission to the Sherman and supplemental bills are also concurred in.

WHAT WILL HE DO WITH IT.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald says: Some people ask what will England do about this treaty? If people who ought to know are to be believed England will do exactly nothing. John Bull will put his hands in his breeches pockets, shrug up his shoulders and assume an attitude of supreme indifference. One of the attachees of the British Legation, on being asked the other day about the matter, smiled carelessly and said, "Aw, yes, the Russian treaty. Aw, we don't care about that, you know; it's no affair of ours, you know." "But," suggested the pumper, "the Russian Possessions will be of great advantage to the United States." "Aw, yes, yes; no doubt—very good for your people who want offices up there, you know; make places for your politicians; but it is of no consequence, you know—it's of no consequence to us," with an immense emphasis on the pronoun. The expression of this diplomatic Toots, no doubt, reflects John Bull's sentiments on the subject.

WANDERING LOVERS.—Last Saturday night among the arrivals at the Columbus depot, says the Journal, there were a husband and a son-in-law—the former in search for his wife and the latter for his mother-in-law. It seems that the mother, a woman about forty-five years old, could not resist the charms of a young man about twenty years of age. She therefore gathered together about $1,000 of her liege lord's silver, and started on a Western tour with her charmer. No trace could be found here of the wandering couple, but it is thought the officers will be able to arrest them soon. All the parties live in Pennsylvania.

A COTEMPORARY has invented a word, or, must we say it, has hatched one. We cannot honestly wish it joy of its progeny—a monstrous cross between English and Greek. "Cablegram" is the word, to signify dispatches by ocean telegraph. Cablegram! This is real etymology. Say it again. What a mouthful, and how euphonious!

Fire in Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 11.—The dye wood mill of Wm. Chase & Co., North Providence, was burned this evening. Loss $20,000; insured.

THE passage of the Great Eastern consumed fourteen days, but as the company on board was comparatively small, and in no particular haste, it was deemed most prudent not to test the new machinery too severely by attempting to force the vessel through the strong head winds and heavy seas which she encountered during the entire passage. The weather throughout was dull and exceedingly disagreeable; day after day came the same leaden skies, high winds and heavy seas; but the vessel behaved nobly, despite the elements, and within the cabin the good cheer and social intercourse between the passengers and officers counteracted in a great measure the depressing influences of the weather. It was not until the Gulf stream had been reached that any damage was done to the ship. Shortly after entering the stream two seas, both of which appeared to rise almost perpendicularly, struck and were shattered on the bow, sending a quiver throughout the entire vessel and staving in the forward bulwarks. The damage done, however, was comparatively slight, and can be readily repaired. At present the vessel is rather out of order, and by no means fitted for the reception of visitors. This is owing in great part to the rough weather encountered during the trip, which allowed scarcely any opportunity for cleaning to be done. She is also much in need of painting, both inside and outside, and when the necessary swabbing, scrubbing and painting have been completed, she will, no doubt, present an entirely different appearance.

A MANLY REBUTTAL.—The Bedford Inquirer, which recently undertook to question the propriety of the COMMERCIAL'S course on railroad matters in the State, lately contained a highly exceptional personal item concerning Ed. Scull, Esq., editor of the Somerset Whig, who has spent most of the past winter at Harrisburg in behalf of the Connellsville Railroad Company. Mr. Scull comes back at the Inquirer folks in a manly denial of a betrayal of the railroad interests of the State as follows: "For more than fifteen years I have labored, in season and out of season, for the completion of the Connellsville road. At the entire sacrifice of my private interests, I spent the greater portion of last winter at Harrisburg without fee or reward, striving for this road—which if completed tomorrow would not advantage me a farthing, other than it would the poorest man in our midst, by infusing general prosperity into the community—and there found, one of the insuperable obstacles to success, the acquiescence of Bedford county politicians—one of them then our Senator—in the repeal of its charter."

WE learn from the Washington Reporter that the Board of Trustees of Washington and Jefferson College have conferred the honorary degree of Master of Arts upon his Excellency, Governor Geary. The Governor was formerly a student in the institution, as were also his brothers and his lamented son. The honor is worthily bestowed.

CITY MATTERS.

STEAMBOAT CONFLAGRATION.

Burning of the Dolphin and Dick Fulton No. 3—Loss About $75,000, and Fully Insured—Firemen Injured.

Last night about twenty minutes before twelve o'clock, a fire broke out on the coal packet Dolphin, lying at the wharf in the Monongahela river, near the foot of Short street. The alarm was immediately sounded from Signal Box No. 3, on the corner of Front and Short streets, and a general alarm given on the tower bell.

The fire department were promptly at the scene, but the flames had gained such headway that it was found impossible to save the boat. The boat being of very inflammable material, the fire spread with tremendous rapidity, and in a short time the whole boat was a mass of flames. The fire then communicated to the large coal packet Dick Fulton No. 3, which was lying next the Dolphin on the east side. This boat also was soon encircled in flames, and all efforts of the firemen to save it were unavailing. The fire here spent its force, and by half-past twelve o'clock the flames had been almost entirely subdued.

The Dolphin was totally destroyed, not a vestige of it remaining with the exception of the hull. The Dick Fulton was also totally destroyed, the chimneys and hull only remaining.

The coal boats Hyena and Arrow, which were lying next the Dolphin on the west side, were towed out shortly after the fire was discovered by the Fox, before the flames could communicate to them. The boats adjoining the Dick Fulton on the east side, were also towed out by the Little Jim Rees in safety. Had the tow boats been a few minutes later in towing out the boats, terrible havoc would have occurred among the steamboats lying along the wharf.

The origin of the fire has not been ascertained. It was first discovered about the middle of the Dolphin. There was no person on the Dolphin, excepting the watchman. The Dick Fulton had her crew on board, but they all escaped in safety.

The Dick Fulton was quite a large coal packet. It was owned by Messrs. Riddle, Coalman & Co., of this city, and was commanded by Captain Parker. The Dolphin was scarcely over half the size of the Dick Fulton. It was owned by Patterson & Bro., and was commanded by Captain Samuel Patterson. The boats were both packed with coal, and were to leave the port next Monday.

The loss of the Dick Fulton will amount to nearly fifty thousand dollars, and that of the Dolphin to over twenty-five thousand dollars. Both boats were two-thirds insured in Pittsburgh Insurance Companies.

A man named Carroll, belonging to the Neptune Fire Company, received severe internal injuries by being struck by a falling spar from the Dick Fulton, while the fire was raging.

The defendant having been convicted during the present term, on a charge of assault and battery, was sentenced to two months in the county jail, to take effect after the expiration of his term in the Penitentiary.

George Marshall, indicted for the larceny of fourteen empty bags, valued at ten dollars, the property of S. Marshall, of Clinton, was tried and acquitted.

Ellen Scanlon was tried on a similar charge, and acquitted.

Patrick Burke was tried on two charges of illegal liquor selling. He was acquitted on one of the charges and found guilty on the other, when the court sentenced him to pay a fine of one hundred dollars and costs.

James Williams was arraigned on a charge of selling liquor without license at the Bowery Saloon, on Fifth street. The defendant alleged that he had disposed of his establishment in June last to Charles Collins and that the bill of sale had been executed by Alderman Taylor of the Fifth ward, but had been mislaid. The prosecution averred that the sale of the saloon to Collins was not a bona fide one; that it had been kept open day after day, and all attempts to secure the alleged proprietor had proved fruitless; that boys had been engaged to attend the bar, and had been changed so frequently that it was impossible to get any of them into Court. In order to arrive at a conclusion in the matter, all persons connected with the saloon had been returned, and after great difficulty Williams had been secured. Jury out.

Edward Barker, another of the parties connected with the Bowery, was arraigned for illegal liquor selling. He was indicted jointly with Charles Collins, but the latter not being present, the jury was only sworn as to Barker. A verdict of guilty was rendered.

The defendant, however, refused to furnish the lumber, alleging that the mules were unsound, and had been sold to him under false representations. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $437 04.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Williams.

The jury in the case of Samuel C. Neel vs. Robert Morrow, administrator of Col. Neel, deceased, reported yesterday, returned a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $5,500.

Christ Church, Allegheny.

The congregation of Christ Church, Allegheny, over which Rev. Dr. Page presides, are to be congratulated on the prospect of their having by the ensuing autumn one of the most commodious and imposing church edifices in the two cities. The fact must also exhilirate the learned Doctor's heart, after all his toils and prayers for the accomplishment of so cherished an object. The churchmen of this vicinity will also be pleased at this evidence of the prosperity of what was once a struggling church. The improvements, we are informed, will be in beautiful taste, and the church when completed will seat eight hundred persons. On the completion of the improvements, Dr. Page will be regularly instituted rector, and he will have a young and active clergyman associated with him. It is hoped his church may prove a medium of richest blessings to generations yet unborn.

ENGLISH holders of Confederate bonds must think Jonathan has more dollars than sense, if they expect him to pay them back the money that they advanced for aiding the rebellion. They seem to think it possible, and thereby they bring their own wit into suspicion. They have taken legal counsel and they have held a meeting, and what they will do next will be seen when it becomes visible. How would they like to trade off some of the Confederate bonds for those of the Irish Republic?

ALLEGHENY COUNCILS.

A stated meeting of the Councils of the City of Allegheny was held last evening.

SELECT COUNCIL.

Members present: Messrs. Drum, English, Hall, Irwin, Motherell, Myler, Pace, J. C. Patterson, A. D. Smith, J. B. Smith, C. C. Smith, Wm. Smith, Thomas and President McBrier.

A petition was presented by A. Patterson from citizens of the Manchester district, asking for a supply of water. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Myler submitted a remonstrance numerously signed, against the action of Councils in passing an ordinance for the opening of North Canal street or Church avenue.

Rev. Dr. John T. Pressly being present was permitted to explain the grounds upon which the remonstrance was based. The Doctor stated that many of the signers of the petition asking for the opening of the street were at the time laboring under a misapprehension, and that a number of them were now embraced in the remonstrance against its opening.

Mr. Myler moved that the ordinance be reconsidered, and that the petition and remonstrance be referred to the Street Committee to examine into and report to Councils. Adopted.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Members present—Messrs. Cutler, Dunham, Drennan, Dill, Falhauber, Hanna, Ingham, Kirkpatrick, Megraw, McDonald, McNeil, Reed, Smith, Slagle, and President Riddle.

Mr. Falhauber presented a petition from citizens of the Fourth ward praying for the opening of Union street in said ward. Referred to Committee on Streets.

Mr. Dill presented a petition from citizens of Washington street in the Manchester district, praying that water pipe be laid on said street. Referred to Committee on Water.

Jno. S. Edgar, Diamond scales	$220 12
James Hunter, Second ward scales	231 12

Total	$1,112 79

Mr. Reed, chairman of the Committee on Engines, presented the regular monthly report, which was accepted and adopted.

Mr. Reed, from the Committee on Fire Engines presented a proposal from Messrs. Gamewell, Kennard & Co., proposing to erect a Fire Alarm Telegraph, similar to the one in use in Pittsburgh, for the sum of $13,000. A resolution was offered accepting of the proposition, and was carried, seven members voting in the negative, viz: Messrs. Falhauber, Kirkpatrick, Megraw, McNeil, Slagle, Voeghtly and President Riddle.

Mr. Dill offered an ordinance providing for the grading and paving of Washington street, in the Manchester district, which was read three times and finally passed.

Mr. Hanna offered an ordinance increasing the salary of the Clerk of Committees from $250 per annum to $450, to date from January 1st, 1867. Read three times and finally passed.

Mr. Smith offered a resolution, authorizing Mr. McHendry, the City Regulator, to place numbers on the buildings on Perry street, in the Third ward.

Mr. Hanna offered an amendment, providing that all the houses in the city be numbered. Adopted.

The matter of the opening of North Canal street was then brought up, when, on motion, Rev. Dr. Pressly was permitted to make a statement.

Dr. Pressly stated that he was obliged to Council for the courtesy extended to him, but thought that it was unnecessary to add anything to the remonstrance already presented to the Select branch. The property holders on the line of the proposed street could not see that any benefit would be derived by them by the opening of the street, and the speaker believed that the signatures to its opening had been secured, owing to a misapprehension. If it was necessary that the street should be opened, the only parties that would be the West Pennsylvania Railroad, and they should be taxed for all the damages arising from the opening of the street.

Mr. Slagle spoke strongly in favor of having the street opened and made a public thoroughfare. Three prominent citizens had been appointed as viewers to assess and apportion the damages, and it was time enough for Councils to act when the report was presented to them.

The action of S. C. was concurred in by the following vote:

Yeas—Cutler, Dill, Falhauber, McDonald, McNeil, Reed, Smith, Voeghtly and President—9.

Nays—Messrs. Dunham, Drennan, Hanna, Ingham, Kirkpatrick, Megraw, and Slagle—7.

Mr. Dill offered an ordinance dividing the Manchester district into two wards. Referred to Committee on New Wards.

The President offered a resolution providing for the removal of all telegraph poles within the city limits not at present in use. Adopted.

Mr. Drennan offered a resolution instructing the Solicitor to examine the City Code, and ascertain if there was any ordinance in existence which the erection of wooden buildings within the limits of the city could be prevented.

Mr. Slagle stated that he had been informed by an attorney that the ordinance prohibiting the erection of wooden buildings was inoperative. The resolution was one of inquiry and he hoped it would be passed.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Reed offered a resolution providing for the laying of a twelve-inch water pipe from School street, in the First ward, down Beaver street as far as necessary. Referred to Committee on Water.

Council then adjourned until Monday evening.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The talented young actor, J. M. Cooke, was the recipient of a substantial benefit last evening, but none greater than his admitted talent entitled him to. Upon the conclusion of the second play, Mr. Cooke was called before the curtain, and was most agreeably surprised by the familiar voice of W. C. Gallagher, Esq., emanating from one of the private boxes, who, in a few appropriate remarks, presented him with an elegant American gold watch and chain, as a slight token of esteem from those who appreciate fine histrionic ability. The favor was well bestowed, and will doubtless be highly appreciated by the beneficiary.

To-night, Mr. Sidney Marlowe, a young gentleman whose efforts on the mimic stage have received the approbation of eminent professionals, will take a complimentary benefit, tendered him by some of our best citizens. Mr. Marlowe will this evening personate Shakspeare's "Hamlet," and judging from his performances of other characters, it is safe to say that he will do less injustice to it than many artists of greater pretensons who have essayed it upon our boards. Mr. Marlowe is an enthusiastic student, and deserves to be well remembered this evening.

VARIETIES.—At the Varieties Theater this evening the accomplished Cherry Belle will have a benefit, when she will appear as "The French Spy." Master Barney and Miss Frank Christie will also perform to-night, aided by the stock company.

MACBETH SATURDAY NIGHT.—Mr. Pelissier, the popular leading man of the German Theater, will personate Macbeth, in English, at the Opera House on Saturday night. This will be a novel and pleasing performance.

The Daily Commercial

FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1867.

☞ THE DAILY COMMERCIAL is circulated in all parts of the State, in Western Virginia, Ohio and adjacent States, and without comparison, is the best advertising medium in Pittsburgh.

☞ THE COMMERCIAL gives the only complete reports of the local markets published, and is accepted as authority by dealers at home and in all the principal cities.

☞ THE COMMERCIAL is sold everywhere in the cars; and by News Dealers at all the principal points. Price five cents a copy.

☞ THE COMMERCIAL is the only paper in Pittsburgh that uses the telegraph freely. special dispatches are from correspondents selected for their intelligence and reliability.

THE Legislature adjourned yesterday, the appropriation bill having been agreed upon. It is understood to be heavily freighted. The Half Million Bill for the benefit (ostensibly) of Gettysburg, did not pass. That some "snakes" will show their heads in due time, is not to be doubted.

THE selection of Senator GRAHAM to be Speaker of the Senate is a distinguished mark of confidence from his associates in that body, but fairly earned, we may presume, by his faithfulness in the discharge of his duties as a legislator, and his fitness for the position. It is also a compliment to Allegheny county and Western Pennsylvania—all the more noticable for the unanimity with which the selection was made.

THE Connecticut victory is, in the estimation of some in the successful party, "the biggest thing of the war." It is now a thing nearly a fortnight old, but is still doing duty in the Democratic press, as a supporter of the disconsolate and despairing party. They are so intent on this Connecticut victory, in which they were saved, as it were, with the skin of their teeth, that they do not see the Rhode Island, Ohio and Michigan elections, in which they were routed and beaten, after the old fashion. And they are carried away so completely with their unaccustomed joy, as not to discover the slender fountain from which they derive it, nor to consider that if Connecticut turned the tide of bad luck, that had for years set against them, Rhode Island and the other States have already sent it rushing on again in its old channels with augmented force. The hopes of the Democracy and the warnings of equivocal Republicans, drawn from that quarter, should be indulged only with great diffidence.

THAT the Senate should have rejected the Genuine Free Railroad Bill, which came to that body from the House, excites no surprise, though it will only intensify the indignation everywhere felt, excited by previous action and the course of legislation generally. This Bill is the one originally introduced by Senator BIGHAM, and we are particularly pleased to notice that while only a month ago all but four Senators gave the Bogus Bill their votes, twelve are now found willing to vote for the genuine one. But two Democrats went for the bill; nine voted against it. Ten Republicans voted for it and ten against it. Had Senators, Republicans and Democrats, lived up to their professions and represented the known wishes of their constituents, the bill would have been carried with scarcely a vote in the negative. Certain of them flagrantly violated their pledges, and such we doubt not will be promptly and properly dealt with by their outraged constituents. Philadelphia and its surroundings went solid against the bill. Had the four Philadelphia Senators gone for it, a measure which would have conferred untold benefits on that city and the State at large would not have been lost.

We go to the people again on this question, and those members and Senators who shall be found wrong on the record will go down under the popular indignation which is already awakened against them.

The following is the vote in the Senate:

CONSOLIDATED PITTSBURGH.

The Philadelphia Gazette learns "with some surprise," that Senator BIGHAM'S Consolidation Bill has become a law. It thinks that "a measure so very important as this should have attracted some attention in Pennsylvania at least," but, it remarks, "thus far it has wholly escaped notice." Our contemporary, viewing the subject from a distance that enables it to obtain a clear view, and speaking from recent valuable experience, refers to the opposition to this measure as "small-minded," and the counterpart of that which was arrayed against the consolidation of Philadelphia with its suburbs. The Gazette concludes with the following favorable suggestions:

> "In the year 1870 a new national census will be taken, and the question is whether Pittsburgh wishes to be again misrepresented. If she does, she has only to refuse to be consolidated, and the general estimate will place her below such cities as Louisville and Nashville, just as the multitudes do now, despite all that can be said against it. If, on the other hand, Pittsburgh and her suburbs should be consolidated into one municipal corporation, the census of 1870 will find her taking rank with St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago, and the world will learn that Pennsylvania contains two great cities, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, with immense material interests and an expansive capacity hitherto but little known. This consolidation would do more to develope the resources of Pittsburgh than any other measure that has been proposed for a long time."

THE IMPOLICY OF STRIKES.

There is no department of human interests, where more numerous mistakes are made just now, than in the department of labor and wages. Speculative or theoretical errors are now being very extensively embodied in practical measures. We cannot but hope the result will be advantageous, as it will show the folly of thinking that the relations of capital and labor can be essentially modified or irresistibly controlled by arbitrary arrangemants, either of law or force. Capitalists cannot permanently reduce wages below, and operatives cannot raise them above, the point where they are fixed, as the price of other things is, by the law of demand and supply.

By the soundest political economists, the standard of values is not currency, nor gold, nor bread, but labor. Accordingly if the price of labor is high, everything else is high. If wages be lowered, other things decline also. Labor leads prices. It may take some little time for the rest to follow, but it is eventually sure. If by any means an investment of capital is found unprofitable, it will be withdrawn as soon as practicable, to be employed in some other way. A persistent demand for higher wages than the market value, will bring on that condition, and by the withdrawal of capital, labor to that extent will cease to be in demand, and the reduction of wages will be inevitable. So on the other hand, a persistent refusal to pay fair wages will drive labor to other pursuits or other places, and scarcity will raise the wages inevitably. We make these statements for the double purpose of showing the mutual dependence of capital and labor, and the impossibility of long evading the law which fixes the price of labor by the demand and supply.

Combinations and strikes on one side or the other are mere temporary struggles against a fixed law of nature and business. They are the result of delusion. Strike may counteract strike, but that is all that can be said of them, for they cannot, on either hand, long resist the law of demand and supply. If wages are lowered too much, other things go down also, and the products of labor are not compensative. If they are raised too high, other things are raised to excess, and the same consequence—unpaying investments—is the result. Arrangements that derive a temporary power from their sudden application, and from the number engaged in them, cannot alter this. Neither can any legislation that human genius can devise or ingenuity imagine.

The true relations of business are lost sight of in the smoke and fog that demagogues have raised about this subject. Capital is the fruit of earnings, and its owner is entitled to some benefit from it as well after it is earned as in the process of earning it, that is, when laboring for wages. The employer and employed are but in different stages of the same progress, and their interests and relations are of the most friendly character. Skill has its investment, as well as capital. So has muscle. Each has its place in one system which, when allowed to work freely, is to the benefit of all; but which, when interfered with and deranged, is unproductive of benefit to either. The feud and quarrel between them is the great folly of the day, or, might it not be said, the great wrong done to all, by parties who really are not legitimately connected with either?

The true method, therefore, for all properly interested to pursue is, to unite in sharing whatever difficulties may result from the unavoidable contingencies of the times, and by prudence, industry and economy to promote their joint interests, since what furthers their joint interests will promote that of each party in the relation.

THE WORST OF ALL EPIDEMICS.

If the same number of deaths were produced by cholera, diphtheria, small-pox or hydrophobia, that are produced by drunkenness, the whole country would be in a state of alarm. Or if an epidemic insanity were to sweep through the land, accompanied with the symptoms and effects of intoxication, such as neglect of business, abuse of families, reckless waste and destruction of property, and the ruin of health, the entire community would be aroused to discover some remedy, to provide for individual safety and to protect the public interests. In either case, individual and combined efforts would be made with reference to those ends, and the wisdom and power and resources of the Government would be invoked to arrest or avert the terrible calamity. And while these efforts were made there would be heard on all sides and in all circles of society expressions of alarm for the danger and of sympathy for the victims of it.

The question of the right of government to ordain sanitary regulations, to remove exciting causes of disease, and to prohibit measures calculated to propagate it, would not probably be suggested, or, if it were, would be indignantly dismissed, in view of the general distress and danger. It is not likely that any argument would be raised against sanitary measures, on the ground of their interfering with the business of the undertaker and the grave digger. The deliverance of the country from the frightful calamity of pestilence and madness would so engross the humane principles of the community everywhere, that the matter of dollars and cents made in any traffic connected with them, would not receive a moment's attention. And especially would the money interest be repudiated with horror, if it were made in and by extending the public distress.

The community has the right that private individuals have, to protect itself from harm. The ravages of intemperance are producing widespread desolation in the community. Individuals and families are destroyed by it. The order and morals of the community are impaired by it. Enormous expense is laid by it upon the community. Nobody is benefitted. The public is, so far as it can be done by Government action, protected from danger from spurious money, from noxious drugs, from concealed weapons, from contagious diseases, and why should it not be from the calamity worse than either of them, the vice of intemperance.

THE pardon of Z. B. Vance, late Governor of North Carolina, was recommended by forty Senators and members of Congress, including Thaddeus Stevens.

IT seems to us not very complimentary, and not altogether fair in the Tribune, to assume that the treaty was carried by Mr. Seward's dinners, if not even more corrupting influences inhering with seven millions.

THE hardest hit the Russian cession got was given by the Savan of the Smithsonian Institute, who said the climate of the new possessions was in winter "like that of Washington." Had he extended the comparison in like manner to the population, the treaty then in public estimation would have been instantly killed stone dead.

THE report that a new difficulty had arisen between the governments of the United States and England about the Alabama claims, has been denied by Lord Stanley on the floor of the House, and all the regrets and censures expended on the strength of the report are just so much lost emotion. That and all other questions between the two governments are said to be in a satisfactory shape.

THE recent intelligence from Washington has created a panic in the ice market. Prices are working downward, with small hope of recovery. We hear of a stock company proposed to construct suitable steam tugs, to bring around the Horn an iceberg, in bulk, from our new territory in the Northwest. The days of forestalling and monopoly in this product of American industry are numbered.

LORD ASHBURTON'S visit to Washington will long be remembered. He wrote to Mr. Webster to rent him furnished lodgings, and the Secretary of State hired for him the house of Matthew St. Clair Clark, who had been for some years Clerk of the House of Representatives. It is a spacious mansion (now occupied by Secretary Welles), fronting on Lafayette Square, and Mr. Webster agreed to pay $1,000 a month for the use of it, agreeing that Lord Ashburton would keep it at least one year. He occupied it ten months and paid $12,000 rent, with an extra $1,000 for damages done to the furniture, etc.

A LONDON letter by the last steamer says: For some reason emigration has taken a new start; Germans and Irish are crowding to America, the Scotch are taking possession of Jamaica, and so many Italians are leaving Genoa for South America that the country districts are becoming depopulated and the government may be obliged to interfere. For the right of emigration is not altogether acknowledged. Some governments claim military service. The Italians run away from the conscription and taxation, but if the people go, the country is ruined.

IT is doubtful if the Great Eastern will be able to obtain the desired complement of three thousand passengers from New York, the fact being that not a great many persons are applying for passage. The threatenings of war in Europe, and the uncertainty of affairs in France and Germany, will not add to the desire of Americans to cross the ocean. On the other hand, the advantages and enjoyment of a voyage in such a ship will be very attractive to hundreds, and with good management here and good accounts from Paris, it may be possible before the close of the month to secure for her the proper complement of passengers.

THAT the spirit of sound conservatism is not wanting in these regions, consigned by our sanctimonious friends of the Democracy to the dismal shades of Radicalism, is apparent in the style of improvements now going on in our city in the form of new, or rather renovated, erections. It is truly touching to observe the veneration for the old, the tried, the rich in associations of the past, so fully illustrated in the ingenious devices, sometimes involving no small amount of daring, to which they resort to retain at least a half dozen plank or timbers or a few square yards of shingles, to be incorporated into the new structure. "Woodman, spare that tree!"

THE two great departments of industry do not appear, at present, to be well balanced. In the former, labor is scarce, while it seems to be in excess of the demand in the latter. The products also bear the same ratio to each other, those of the former being scarce in the market and bearing extraordinary prices, while those of the latter are abundant and are comparatively cheap. The results of these concurrent causes fall heavily on those concerned in maunfactures, making employment uncertain and reducing wages while subsistence maintains its former high prices. This condition of things cannot last long. Equalising and compensative influences will effect a change that will be advantageous all round.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

The New York Herald makes the startling announcement that "the railroad companies are running riot in the plenitude of their influence. They are buying up the Legislature, buying up Aldermen, buying up parks and squares, and, in short, propose to buy up everybody and everything." Is the Herald included?

A woman named Finn, who was far advanced in pregnancy, was gored to death by a mad cow at Highland Falls, near West Point, last week. Her entrails were torn out and a male child was released from its natural fastenings. It is still alive and gives every symptom of growing up.

A very large white pea is grown near Shanghae, China, from which oil is extracted for burning. So extensively is this article used that from Shanghae alone two million pounds worth is yearly distributed over China. This liguminous plant is called teuss.

The Cunard proprietors have launched on the Clyde an iron screw steamer of the class of the China, to be called the Russia. She will be followed by the Sumatria, already commenced.

Never has so much interest been centered upon South America as at present. A great many vessels are on their way to the east coast and the Amazon, and an unusual number are advertised. It is probable that a great advance will be made this summer in the exploration of the interior and the opening up of commerce.

English workmen are instigating and aiding strikes on the Continent, because they wish aid and co-operation in return. But this sometimes works curiously. Some time ago the Paris hatters had a strike, and the London hatters sympathized with and helped them; but the Paris dealers were all the time supplied with English made hats!

At the Paris Exposition it is said that a novelty will be on exhibition, in the shape of an artificial horse. The ingeniously constructed animal, when ready for the road, will travel twenty-five miles without stopping, and afterwards may be wound up in a few moments so as to go as much further, and so on indefinitely. A horse like this must be a valuable acquisition provided it can be bought as cheaply as the noble animal of which it is a copy.

Says a London letter: The Fenians in Ireland have really behaved like gentlemen, and are a credit to their supposed American origin and training. The other night a party went to a country mansion and demanded arms. They were refused. "Excuse me," said the leader, "but it is absolutely necessary that we should have them, and if you do not open the door, I shall be under the disgraceful necessity of breaking it in; but I will injure the lock as little as possible." On this the door was opened, and one of the men, carefully cleaning his feet on the scraper and door-mat, went in and helped himself to the arms, when the party quietly left.

There is a general movement among the employers and workmen in Chicago, in anticipation of the enforcement of the eight hour law, which takes effect on the first of May. There is an almost universal determination among the workingmen to insist upon an enforcement of the law. Many of the large manufacturing establishments are making arrangements to close their business in the event of a strike by their employees. They argue that they cannot compete with establishments in other parts of the country, where the eight hour law is not in existence, and they will go to those points and purchase their goods, rather than make them themselves.

Samuel Ketchum, ex-Treasurer of Coshocton county, Ohio, has been indicted for embezzling, forgery and perjury, and Jim Brown, his accomplice, for embezzlement of public funds alone. Both are out on bail in the sum of $14,000 each. The Sheriff was not implicated.

Among the latest mining news on the Upper Missouri is the discovery of very rich and extensive copper deposits in the valley of the Musclesbell, about sixty-five miles from Helena, Montana. Men who formerly worked in the celebrated Copperopolis lode of California say that the deposits, judging from appearance, are the richest they ever knew. This is an item of importance to boatmen, as the ore will most likely be smelted in St. Louis.

The Mississippi river is open to Dubuque, the first steamer from below arriving there Monday.

The Montana Herald of the 18th ultimo says the Sioux, Crows, Blood, Peguins and Grosventre Indians have formed a league against the whites. The first named tribe is camped 35 miles from Fort Smith—1,800 lodges and 5,600 warriors. The others number 800 lodges and 2,400 warriors.

A fatal disease has broken out among the sheep in some parts of Illinois. A post mortem examination reveals the presence of parasites in the stomach.

PERSONAL.

—Senator Saulsbury was saved from expulsion by the appeals of his wife, who promised to take him home—and she did it. The appeal could not be resisted nor cannot be thought of without emotion. Though overmastered by drink Mr. Saulsbury is a man of very marked abilities—one of the ablest, most cogent and effective speakers of the Senate, of fine personal appearance, tall, erect, dark complexion, with piercing black eyes and jet black hair, courtly and impressive in his manner, and of noble and generous impulses. The case of Senator McDougall, whose term has just closed, is a similar one. A man of clear intellect, finished culture and fascinating manners, but cursed with the same affliction, he was tolerated in the Senate only from a similar motive. One of the most touching sights to be seen in Washington during the session was the presence in the gallery of his wife and daughter, waiting night after night often till long past midnight, anxious and distressed, to accompany him to their home. It may be said to his credit that, whatever he may have been to the rest of the world, he was never anything but respectful, obedient and tender to them.

—Mrs Harriet Beecher Stowe is traveling in the South. A Southern paper noticing her presence there expresses the wish that she may find the Southern people much improved since she wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

—Theodore Tilton found a dozen or twenty aspirants to the presidency, on his late visit to Washington; they were so plenty, indeed, he did not think it worth while to count them very accurately.

—The United States Minister near the Court of St. James has presented to Her Majesty the Queen, Chief-Justice Isaac Redfield, special counsel of the United States in Europe, and George H. Chandler, Esq., barrister-at-law and counsel of the United States Government in Europe. Now, as it is very doubtful if one of the counsel of the Confederate agents or Confederate bondholders have ever been presented, this is so much clear gain for our side. Messrs. Redfield and Chandler have made their obeisance, in swords and knee breeches, to the fountain of justice, the best possible beginning for a long siege in the Court of Chancery.

—M. Du Chaillu, the explorer, who came out in the Great Eastern, according to a New York description, "was seen with both hands in his pockets and his dark eyes peeping out" (not from his pockets, but) "from under the broad brim of his English hat." We hope both his hands and eyes were satisfied with our great and glorious country.

—The following story of the drunken Ex-Senator McDougall of California is said to be veritable. He was discovered one evening lying in one of the street gutters of Washington, thoroughly inebriated. The person finding him, inquired, after rousing him, "Who are you?" With drunken gravity, the prostrate Senator replied, "When—I—came here, [hic] I was—McDougal; but now [hic] I'm sewered."

—The famous Stewart divorce case in Chicago has been ended by the issuing of a decree in favor of the application of Mrs. Stewart.

—The London Morning Post in speaking of the Princess of Wales's illness, deals her husband this neat rap: "The only circumstance which would lead us to doubt the report of her Royal Highness's condition is, that the Prince is constant in his attendance upon the hunt and at theatrical performances."

—Count Bismark resently presented a faithful but poor secretary with a portfolio bound like a book, in which were deposited five thousand thalers. On meeting his secretary next day, the Count asked him if he had perused the volume. "Yes, your Highness," said the secretary, "and I am so captivated by its contents that I am waiting the appearance of the second volume with feelings of the greatest interest." The Count smiled, but said nothing. A few days afterward the secretary received a second portfolio, bound and filled like the first, and on the title page of which was the sentence: "This work is complete in two volumes."

The Free Suffrage Question in Ohio.

The resolution proposing to amend the suffrage section of the State Constitution of Ohio finally passed the Senate on the 6th inst., with the clause added by the House, disfranchising rebels and deserters. Colored persons are made the equals of whites in the qualifications of voters. The following is a copy of the proposed amendment, which is to be voted upon by the people of Ohio, October 8 next:

> Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one year, who shall have been a resident of the State one year next preceding the election, and of the county, township or ward in which he resides such time as may be provided by law, except such persons as may have borne arms in support of any insurrection or rebellion against the government of the United States, or have fled from their places of residence to avoid being drafted into the military service of said government in time of war, and have not subsequently been honorably discharged from the same, shall have the qualifications of an elector, and be entitled to vote at all elections.

THE PEACH CROP.—The Reading Dispatch says: The prospect for a large crop of peaches at this time in this neighborhood is reported as being very flattering. The long continued cold weather which has had the effect of keeping the sap down and buds from expanding has been of great advantage and should they not be injured by late frosts the crop bids fair to equal that of 1864.

The Pennsylvania Legislature.

"Horace," the Harrisburg correspondent of the Chambersburg Repository, does not seem to have a high appreciation of the present Pennsylvania Legislature. He says:

> "The roosters being about to end their legislative career and being of no possible account at home, unless to serve as petty monuments of the wrath of betrayed constituencies, no one cares for them sufficiently to maintain faith with their exactions, and many of them will go home nearly as bankrupt in property as in reputation. To one principle this Legislature has been faithful. It has been consistent in defying the wishes of the people on every important question. In vain did the press, the organ of the people, ask for the people the poor privilege of deciding for themselves whether they want constitutional reform. It was enough to know that it was desired, and it had no show whatever. Had the question of a convention been submitted to the people, they would have called one by not less than one hundred thousand majority, and by another year the disgrace of debauched legislatures, such as the one about to close, would have ended; but the people had no agents here to buy reform, and it fell to the ground."

A BAPTIST COLLEGE.—Committees of the Monongahela Baptist Association and Free Will Baptist Society, met last month at Smithfield, Fayette county, Pa., and after a full interchange of opinions, it was resolved to erect a College within the bounds of the Associations, and elected A. A. Purman, Rev. J. M. Purington and C. A. Gilbert to select a site and prepare a plan of endowment, and report to the meeting of the joint committees, to meet at Brownsville in June next.

THE Emperor of Austria wrote a cable dispatch himself and signed it, addressed to Count Wydenbruch, his Minister here, direting him to ask the United States Government to intercede in behalf of his brother Maximilian, whose life he believes is in peril. It is understood that Count Wydenbruch communicated the dispatch to Secretary Seward, and that a request was sent to the Juarez Government asking that the life of Maximilian may be spared.

Capt. Duff, of East Liberty, says: For many years I have been afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia in their worst forms. I was induced to try Mishler's Herb Bitters. The use of but a small quantity of it effected a radical cure in my case. The above certificate is reliable, and one of the many we are daily receiving.

Depot for Rev. E. A. Wilson's Consumptive Remedy

COMPOUND

Charcoal Biscuit,

OR

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC FOOD,

Composed of recently Calcined Willow Charcoal, &c., combined with Graham Flour.

On account of the difficulty and unpleasantness of taking Charcoal, it has not hitherto been employed, either by physician or patient, as much as its valuable medicinal properties demand. This objection is now overcome, as these Biscuits are not only free from disagreeable taste, but are more palatable and highly nutritious.

RECENTLY CALCINED WILLOW CHARCOAL

is a powerful Disinfectant and Absorbent, and when administered internally is a valuable remedy for Heartburn, Waterbrash, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Eructation, Constipation and other forms of Indigestion. It is employed in three complaints with the most favorable results by eminent physicians, both in Europe and America. Amongst others, M. Belloc found it especially efficacious in Gastralia, etc., and his observations were confirmed by the French Academy of Medicine: other noted men recommend its use, for whose opinion see Dispensary, &c. These Biscuits should be taken three or four times a day, and may be used at meals, in place of ordinary bread. For infants, soften one or two in milk or water, and give to prevent Acidity of the Stomach, Flatulence, &c.

N. B.—Persons suffering from Fetid Breath, arising from disordered digestion or decayed teeth, will find these an effectual and pleasant remedy.

THE GREAT ENCHANTER.

Sleep makes us all pashas.—Bedouin Proverb.

Sleep is the poor man's warmest cloak;
His treasurer to dispense
His lavish alms, and turns to gold
His scanty pence.

He heals the sick man in a dream,
And sets the fettered free;
He calls the beggar from his den
To golden luxury.

He crowns the hounded exile king,
Reverses Fate's decrees;
And bids the briefless pleader rise
Judge of the Common Pleas.

Sleep joins the parted lovers' hands;
Wreathes the starved poet's brow;
And calls the hero still unknown
From the lonely village plow.

Sleep holds the resurrection keys,
And from his shadowy plain,
Down Memory's long and cloudy vaults,
The dead come back again.

Sleep comes, like death, alike to all—
Divine equality!
Blesses the monarch in his state,
The slave upon the sea.

Sleep brings our childhood back again
The only Golden Age;
Sleep! O thou blessed alchemist,
Thou holy Archimage.

The Trichiniasis.

Dr. Edward Hitchcock of Amherst college has examined a portion of the muscle taken from the body of Miss Ida Hall, who died in Springfield Mass. last week, and found the trichinæ in it in large numbers. He fully agrees with most of our resident physician's that the young lady's death was caused by the terrible disease, trichiniasis, and furnishes the following interesting and descriptive account of it:—

The disease known as trichiniasis is caused by the presence of a minute parasite infesting the voluntary muscles. The name of this animal is trichina spiralis, and in its popular acceptation may be called a minute worm, somewhat like the common vinegar eel. This animal was first made known to the world by Prof Richard Owen of the British museum, London, in 1835, and has been subsequently studied minutely by Drs Bowditch and Wyman of Boston, and Dr. Dalton of New York. The animals which the trichina most commonly infests are man and the common hog, though it has been found in other domestic animals. It is however most commonly introduced into the human system by using some preperation of pork as an article of food. It probably can be introduced only through the intestines, and not by the skin. Its tenacity of life, like that of some of the lower animals, is not a little remarkable, since it withstands heat to the amount of 169 Fahrenheit, and is not killed by a temperature of 13 degrees below zero. Various chemical substances, even those that partially decompose the muscle, including common salt, are not injurious to it, and smoking of hams does not destroy it. Trichiniasis has never prevailed extensively in this country, but has been well known in northern Germany and Prussia, and somewhat in France. And in those countries where sausages and hams are common articles of diet, and especially when eaten uncooked, this disease is well known. So that it is safe to say that if a person will eat ham, sausages or any portion of the meat of the hog in a raw or partially cooked condition, he runs a great risk of inflicting upon himself this very uncomfortable disease.

The trichina, when it arrives at its adult or perfect state surrounds itself with a cyst or sac, in which it remains indefinitely, when, if chance favors its entrance into the stomach of another animal, it commences anew its cycle or development, otherwise it perishes. It is necessary, then, for the development of the trichina, that it be ingested into the stomach of another animal, from which it bores through the stomach and bowels, and ultimately reaches its destination, the muscles of his body. Each trichina is capable of producing from 400 to 1000 young. After the trichinous food has been eaten, in the course of a week the young are hatched and commence seeking their "habitat" in the muscles.

As already mentioned, these animals, when in their perfect state, become encysted, or lodged in a little bladder. If they pass to this condition without destroying the individual in whom they live, the "host" may recover from the disease. In the case of Miss Ida Hall none of them so far as ascertained, had pass to this stage of the disease, but had destroyed her life in the earlier stages of it. Some authors state that as many as 7200 trichinæ have been discovered in the space of a square inch, one-fiftieth of an inch thick. But probably in this case from Springfield the number scarcely exceeded one-half that number. There are two stages of this disease when it runs a regular course, first, one of intense pain in the stomach and bowels, and, second, that of muscular irritation. The first is probably owing the the passage of the parasite upon and through the coats of the intestine, and the latter due to the vermicular motion through the fibers of the muscles. In the first stage, within a week or ten days after the ingestion of the food, the symptoms may be very much like those of cholerine. There is pain, sickness of the stomach, vomiting, diarrhea, fetid breath, heartburn, &c., or the symptoms like a severe colic or bowel difficulty. In the second stage there is a swelling or puffiness of the face, especially about the eyes, and sometimes it extends to the throat and vocal passages, so that it produces a hoarseness of the voice. A great fever heat rages, and the pulse is accelerated to 134, and respiration from 30 to 36. Violent perspiration is also a symptom of this stage. But the most marked features are seen in the muscles, which become swollen, hard and painful, the patient suffering agony upon any pressure or attempt to move the limbs, and lying generally upon the back. Death may occur from paralysis or typhoidal symptoms.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

One thing is certain, if Mr. Kenney meets with the encouragement that his project merits one of the most attractive exhibitions ever presented in Pittsburgh will take place during the national holiday week. He has everywhere in the West been most successful with his exhibitions, and there is no reason why such should not be the case here.

A MAGNIFICENT HOSE CARRIAGE.—Capt. Benjamin F. Jennings, of Allegheny, has received a letter from David M. Lyle, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Philadelphia Fire Department, stating that the magnificent hose carriage, ordered for the Soldiers' Monument Fair, in Pittsburgh, has been stored in a secure place, awaiting orders. SOIREE MUSICALE.—We take pleasure in announcing that a musical entertainment will be given at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening, April 23d, under the auspices of the Society of St. Vincent De Paul, for the benefit of the poor, without distinction of creed or color. The Misses Caroline and Helen McCaffrey, of Philadelphia, have consented to sing on the occasion. Miss Caroline is a cantatrice of rare and exquisite cultivation. Many of our readers still remember her rendering of "He was Despised," from the Messiah, with such thrilling effect at the Sanitary Fair. Miss Helen possesses a superb soprano voice. Prof. Manning, violinist, Miss Hattie Jones, Messrs. Mellor, Apfelbaum and other distinguished vocalists of our city will kindly contribute their services. The concert will be under the direction of Prof. L. C. Houghanout, the well known organist of St. Peter's church.

IMPORTANT COURSE OF SCIENTIFIC LECTURES.—Last evening a very select and intelligent audience was present at Masonic Hall, to hear the opening lecture of a scientific course given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city. The lecturer was Professor W. H. Brewer, of Yale College, and his theme, "The Physical Geography of the Pacific States." The lecturer had personally explored a very considerable portion of the territory lying West of the Great Father of American Waters, while under Government employ, with an expedition, and furnished a most interesting and valuable account of the general structure of that portion of our country, its system of mountains, volcanoes, valleys, plains, deserts, lakes, rivers, forests, climate, native inhabitants, etc. To-night, Professor Brewer, will lecture upon the "mountain scenery of California," and we are promised by his friends the most entertaining and instructive lecture delivered in Pittsburgh during the season. Professor Brewer will exhibit several large photographs of the renowned and beautiful Yo Semite Valley, taken on the spot. We trust he will be favored with an overflowing audience. These lectures are especially valuable to students, and young people generally, and they ought to take advantage of them. Next week Professor Rockwell, of Yale College, will lecture on "Coal and Coal Mining," an especially interesting subject to the people of our vicinity.

SOUTHERN DESTITUTION.

Meeting of Citizens at Board of Trade—Remarks of Geo. H. Thurston, Esq.—Adjourned till Monday Next.

A public meeting of the citizens was held yesterday afternoon at the Board of Trade Rooms, for the purpose of devising some means for the relief of the destitute and starving people of the South. The meeting came to order by calling George H. Thurston, Esq., President of the Board, to the chair, and appointing Rev. Joseph S. Travelli and the Reporters of the Press as Secretaries.

Mr. Thurston, on taking the chair, said:

GENTLEMEN!—I am gratified at being called to preside over this meeting, though small in number. I am aware that there are those who think that the sufferings of the South are but just punishment for the terrible wrong that was done in the attempted severance of the nation. That punishment should follow the crime is most undoubted, but I am one of those who do not think that suffering women and children to die of starvation is the proper punishment. For that reason I feel like doing what little I can to do good to those who have despitefully used us.

The strife that has but now ended between the two sections of the country has engendered many feelings of revenge and prejudice and passion. The loyal sentiment of the people has been so outraged that it is difficult to forgive. Many desolated households have reasons to feel indisposed to extend the least succor to those who have brought bitter sorrow to their firesides. We should not forget, however, that among those now suffering for food are friends as well as enemies, and, while the most ordinary of human impulses lead us unsolicited to feed our friends, it is the teachings of the Great Judge of all human actions that direct us to succor our enemies. With the rest of the loyal citizens of this city, I did what I could to aid in sustaining a principle of justice and mercy to a race of fellow men, and in sustaining the unity of the nation and the cause of freedom. In my heart as well as in that of others, prejudices and passions may have been engendered—and my judgment calls for punishment upon those who by so causelessly rebelling cost the country so much suffering, blood and treasure. While we know that the principle we as loyal citizens sustained was correct, and while thousands of loyal hearts felt no fear in going to the cannon's mouth to sustain it, yet there is another principle that is fully as correct, and that bids us feed the poor, and succor the distressed. The city of Pittsburgh was not afraid or backward in setting her treasures of money and her dearest treasures of loved brothers and husbands to sustain the first principle against the rebellious South. Shall she be less forward in sending her treasures of money only to sustain a principle equally correct and of diviner origin?

I for one feel like laying aside all feeling of public wrongs, smothering all promptings of prejudice or of passion, and remembering only that these suffering people are kin of our kin, blood of our blood, people of our people, and that women and children are dying for bread. It seems horrible to me that in a land abounding in wheat and corn and in wealth, the people of a large section of the country are feeding on husks, or dying from want of that of which we have abundance, and to spare. Be our private griefs what they may, be our sense of public wrongs ever so great; be our indignation ever so extreme at the outrage upon the people and the nation, let us put them aside, and, listening to the calm promptings of our better nature, give, with a heart grateful to Providence for our prosperity, with a liberal hand to the starving people of the South, remembering only our brotherhood as a people, our unity as a nation, and our duty as Christians.

On account of the small attendance, it was, on motion,

Resolved, That this meeting now adjourns until Monday afternoon next, 15th inst., at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of obtaining a general attendance of our citizens, and that notice be given in all the city papers, and that the ministers of all churches of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and surroundings be and are hereby respectfully requested to give notice of the same from their pulpits on Sabbath next—urging the attendance of all who are disposed to contribute to the relief of the suffering people of the South.

THE Iron City Monthy will be ready at an early day. Announcement of its appearance will be made through the papers. Price 60 cents per copy.

THE Iron City Monthy will be ready at an early day. Announcement of its appearance will be made through the papers. Price 60 cents per copy.

REMOVAL.—The general offices of the Pan-Handle Railroad have been removed from Fifth street to their new three story brick building on Seventh street, near Grant, at the eastern opening of the tunnel. The great increase in business since the opening of this short line, rendered it necessary to have a new building, constructed with special reference to the accommodation of the business. On the ground floor are the offices of the general agent for the transaction of local business. On the second floor (entrance on Seventh street) are the offices of the President, General Superintendent and General Freight Agent. On the third floor the offices of the Supply Agent and General Ticket Agent are to be found.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

[Before Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny.]

LARCENY OF THIRTEEN DOLLARS.

Officer Scott, of the Allegheny police, yesterday arrested a man named John Johnson, charged with larceny, on oath of Samuel Denmore. The parties are both colored, and Johnson was a boarder at Denmore's house, in the Third ward, Allegheny. He was charged with having stolen thirteen dollars from Denmore, and then paid two boys a dollar a piece as "hush" money. Johnson acknowledged yesterday to having stolen seven dollars, but denies having stolen thirteen dollars. He is in the lock-up awaiting a hearing.

STRUCK WITH AN AWL.

John McMurray, a resident of Manchester, made oath charging James Neeld with assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that Neeld threw an awl at him from the top of his house, striking him on the arm and injuring him quite severely. The accused was arrested by officer Scott, but the case was settled and the charge withdrawn.

[Before Alderman Strain.]

A HORSE TRANSACTION.

James O'Donnell yesterday lodged an information against John Gilkman, charging him with false pretense. O'Donnell alleges that he purchased from Gilkman a horse which he represented as being a good worker, and sound in every respect, and for which he paid him the sum of sixty dollars. After a fair trial the animal was found to be totally worthless, and not such as Gilkman represented it to be. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing. The parties reside in the Sixth ward.

KNOCKED HIM DOWN.

Henry Crossman, of the Eighth ward, was arrested on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Wm. Ray, who alleged that he (Crossman) knocked him down and beat and abused him. He gave bail to appear for a hearing.

FROM "FORT LIMERICK" DIRECT.

James O'Connor lodged an information against Mary Liddy, charging her with having sold liquor at various times without a license, contrary to the Act of Assembly.

Sarah O'Conner also lodged information against the same defendant for surety of the peace, alleging that she threatened to burn her house down. Warrants were issued in both cases. The parties all reside in that classic precinct known as "Fort Limerick," in West Pittsburgh.

A CHILD SCARED INTO SPASMS.

Mrs. Margaret Reed made oath charging Henry Lappman with surety of the peace. She alleges that he picked up a poker and threatened to strike her, and also attempted to strike her little daughter, aged seven years, with it, scaring the child so badly that it went into spasms. BOARDING UNDER FALSE PRETENSES.

John Duffy, proprietor of the Travelers' Inn, lodged an information, yesterday against Hugh O'Neil, charging him with obtaining board under false pretense. He alleged that O'Neil obtained from him boarding, to the amount of twenty-six dollars, by representing that he was agent for a New York insurance company, and that he had money deposited in the bank, which allegations were false. The accused was arrested, waived a hearing, and entered bail for trial.

He was in the employ of Mr. Hess as a shoemaker, and was suspicioned of having stolen a number of shoes from the store. NE PLUS ULTRA.—We were astonished beyond measure at the great variety of admirable and highly attractive styles of hats and caps whilst looking through the store of Graham & Byrne, 52 St. Clair street. One would be led to suppose that they had more styles than all the jobbers and small stores put together, but this is hardly possible. But we came to the conclusion that Graham can keep a hat store.

His medicine was to me worth many times its weight in gold. J. B. SNEAD, Freedom, Pa.

A FACT FOR EVERYBODY—The New Orleans papers dwell upon the luxury of ice and cool soda. We want our readers to dwell upon the fact that the new grocery store of Messrs. Pusey & Stevens, No. 49 Federal street, Allegheny city, is just the best and cheapest place we can recommend them to patronize, for their family groceries and teas. This is a well stocked establishment. Everything is new and fresh, and has been purchased with great care. Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Pickles, Sauces, &c. Call and examine. The wholesale department is just now replenished. Country dealers should not fail to make a note of this concern, and give it an early visit.

CARD.—Dr. Robert Hunter desires to notify his patients and those requiring his professional services, that he will definitely close his office in Pittsburgh on the evening of Saturday, April 27th.

Dr. Hunter's practice is confined to affections of the chest, viz.: Sore throat, ozena, bronchitis, asthma, consumption and disease of the heart.

Parties wishing to avail themselves of Dr. Hunter's experience in those affections, should embrace the earliest opportunity before his return to New York, for a personal interview and examination, after which they can pursue the treatment without difficulty.

HEAR REASON—STRENGTHEN THE DEFENCES.—A sound military leader when he anticipates an attack always strengthens his defenses. The human system requires that one should be on the alert constantly to avert disaster to it. How can this best be done? We know of no safer and more effective way than by using Holmes' Great Sanitary Tonic, which will reinforce all the vital organs and strengthen the entire nervous system. Being an article of true merit, and having been proved to be efficient, this Tonic is now universally pronounced better than any other article. While referring to Holmes' great medicines, we wish to call attention, also, to his admirable and unsurpassed Ague Mixture, Magic Plaster, and wonderful Rheumatism Compound. These medicines are all prepared and manufactured by J. R. Holmes, Allegheny city. See advertisement in to-day's paper.

New arrival of Boy's, Youth's and Children's Fancy Clothing, for Spring and Summer wear, in great variety of styles, on hand at the Star of the West Clothing Hall, No. 169 corner of St. Clair and Liberty streets. A. Aronson, Merchant Tailor.

Pulmonary Consumption Resulting from Pleurisy, Cured.

Statement of George Ford, Carpenter, of No. 15 Sampson street, Allegheny City: I took a violent attack of Pleurisy in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there I called on a doctor who told me my left lung was affected, and if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having heard of cures made by Dr. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor, at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and perseverance in the use of his medicines I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by Dr. Keyser was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.

GEORGE FORD.

Pittsburgh, March 30, 1867.

MR. W. MILLER says:

PITTSBURGH, September 4, 1866.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

GENTS: I think I am only doing the part of a good citizen when I testify to the great benefits received by me from the use of your Stomach Bitters during the last five years. Sojourning for a time in the oil regions, in 1861, I had a severe billious attack, which, in connection with dyspepsia, left me in a very weak condition. I was advised to try your Bitters, and having procured a bottle, found that they worked like a charm upon me, eight pounds having been added to my weight in the space of one week, and new life seemed to have been infused into my system, so much so, that I have been induced to use them every summer since that time. As a tonic, I think they are invaluable.

This summer, having had a similar attack, (and as before, much reduced,) although under he treatment of an A No. 1 physician, I was again obliged to have resource to the old Bitters, and with the same good result, having gained six pounds within a few days. I purchased a half dozen bottles a few weeks since, and purpose to use them regularly as a tonic. Wishing you every success, I remain yours, gratefully, WILLIAM MILLER.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY EVENING, April 11th 1867.

The gold quotation was very unsettled throughout the day. The news this morning from London of a rise in Consols checked the advance in the gold premium. A decline in British Consols is always evidence of a distracted condition of financial affairs at the great commercial center of the world. The decline following immediately on the heel of a conciliatory speech by the French Secretary of State, is evidence not elsewhere found of the strong apprehensions entertained of trouble between France and Prussia. The effect of the news on the English stock market has been felt throughout Europe and in all the principal cities in America. By some persons it is regarded as probable that the distrust among the great powers in Continental Europe may bring on a renewal of hostilities in Germany, and may lead to an extension of its area through a wider sweep of territory than any previous European war. The usual diversity of opinion prevails as to the result of all this; but it seems to be generally conceded that if we keep clear of the quarrel we shall be the gainers—at least not material losers. A war in Europe would make a demand for our breadstuffs and provisions, and for our securities, as long as we shall remain at peace. Independent of this, it is argued, war would dislodge capital in Europe, which would be invited hither by the higher interest realized on it. These reasonings are not without some force, but our recollections in similar disturbances is to the effect that formidable war anywhere unsettles credit everywhere, and thus makes it a universal evil.

—In the New York quotations of the Railway list to-day there is a further decline noticed in all except Fort Wayne, Rock Island and New York Central. A correspondent complains of our notice this morning of the fall in the Fort Wayne stock, that the "decline was most marked." This remark was applied to the Cleveland and Pittsburgh stock, but by some inadvertence the sentence that cited the name of this company was omitted. In our extracts from the New York papers we frequently quote the opinions of the Tribune as well as the other leading papers, of the prominent stocks dealt in at the Exchange Board. The extract given this morning, of which the correspondent complains was not indorsed by this paper, but inserted to show the views of the "bear" clique, for it is well known in stock circles that the Tribune is a chronic "bear" on railways.

—The late fall in railroad stocks is attributable to the great "pinch" in the money market, and a general public apathy caused by heavy losses and disappointments which operators have suffered for the last few months.

—The Cincinnati Gazette observes: "An important feature in the general markets at present—a very important one, indeed—is the excitement in flour and grain, and the high prices established. This is not the result of speculation, but of absolute scarcity. In regard to wheat it may be remarked that we are now feeling the full effect of the failure of the last crop. The consumption has now so far gained upon the supply as to render it difficult for millers to meet even the diminished consumptive demand for flour. This of course excites a speculative movement, but the effect of the latter will be to cause farmers to hurry to market whatever remains of the crop, not only in this section, but throughout the country."

—The improved tone noticed in the copper mining shares list continues, and the tide has fairly turned; prices tend upward and the public are sending in orders very freely. Allouez advanced ¼; Franklin sold at 18; Huron opened at 9¾ and steadily advanced to 10¼ cash, and 10½ buyer 30 days; Copper Falls improved $2 per share, selling at 22 cash, and 23 on time. The annual meeting of this company will be held on Wednesday, the 10th inst.

The following were the closing prices for the principal mining shares: Bay State 5@5½; Canada 40 offered; Concord 3 asked; Copper Falls 22 offered; Franklin 18 offered; Hancock, 5½ asked; Humboldt 1½ offered; Huron, ass't paid, 10@10½; Isle Royal 5½@6; Minnesota 10 asked; Petherick 2 offered; Pewabic 15@15½; Pittsburgh 40 asked; Pontiac 1 asked; Quincy 24@28; Rockland 7½@8½; Star ½@1¼; St. Clair, ass't paid, 4@4½; Superior 2@2½; Winthrop ¾ offered.—Boston Advertiser, Wednesday.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, THURSDAY EVENING, April 11, 1867.

There was not quite as much animation in the general markets to-day as usual. Flour continues firm and in but small receipts. Many dealers are sold ahead. Wheat is very scare. The corn market has been firm and prices tending upward. Rye is in but limited supply. The demand for oats is active and prices higher. There is a good demand for bacon and lard. There has been, generally, no change in prices since our last.

The receipts of leading articles of produce, per river and railroad, since our last, were 831 bbls flour; 352 bbls apples; 329 sacks corn; 176 sacks wheat; 698 sacks oats, and 53 packages butter.

We quote the Pittsburgh market as follows, which are the wholesale prices unless otherwise stated.

APPLES—The stock of good apples in store is getting rather limited, and the market rules steady at good prices. We quote from store, prices ranging from $4 00@6 00 ₩ bbl, as to quality. We note sales of 10 bbls choice at $5 50, and 30 bbls common at $4 50 ₩ bbl.

BEANS—Prime navy are quoted from store at $2 75@3 00 ₩ bush. There is not a large stock of choice beans in the market.

BUTTER—The demand for choice articles of butter is sufficient to take all coming forward at full prices. Extra table sells readily at 35@40c ₩ lb. We note sales of 6 packages at 38c; 10 do at 35c; 25 boxes at 38c; 6 packages at 33@35c, and 7 at 34@36c ₩ lb. Inferior qualities are dull in sale, and may be quoted nominally at 18@30c ₩ lb, as to quality.

BACON, LARD, &C.—We quote sales by packers of sugar cured hams at 16c; sugar cured Shoulders at 11½c; Clear Sides, 13c; Rib Sides, 12c; Plain Shoulders, 10@10¼c; Canvased sugar-cured hams, 16½@17c; and City leaf Lard 13¼@13½c ₩ lb. Dried Beef 23c, and canvased beef 25c ₩ lb. Mess Pork sold at $23 50 ₩ bbl.

CHEESE—There has been a fair demand, and we quote sales from store at 16c for Western Reserve; 22@22½c for Goshen, and 17@18c for Hamburg ₩ lb.

DRIED FRUITS—The market has a large supply of apples on hand, and prices are ranging, from store, at 8½@10c ₩ lb. Sales of 20 bushels at 8½c, and 12 bushels at 9@9½c ₩ lb, reported.

EGGS—There is a fair demand and the market is firm at 22@23c ₩ dozen, from store. Sales reported of 37 bbls at 17c, and 12 at 22c ₩ dozen.

FLOUR—The market continues active and firm at the quotations given yesterday. Some dealers have sold ahead of receipts to a considerable amount. We noticed to-day the warehouse of one of our most extensive dealers entirely cleaned out of stock. A few dealers are somewhat puzzled at the condition of the market, and hardly know what to quote at. There are but few dealers who look for any decline in prices, but still they are averse to risking any very extensive purchases for speculation. We quote the following brands: Snow Flake, fancy Winter, $15 50; Jenkins's Eureka, extra Winter, $15 00; Jenkins's Lilly, choice, $14 75; Desplaine's and Sears's best, $14 25@14 50; Crossett's Crescent, $13 50 ₩ bbl, and Crossett's best, $15 ₩ bbl.

RYE FLOUR—The quotations are, from store, $8 50 ₩ bbl.

CORN MEAL—We quote at $1 15 ₩ bush.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—From store the quotations are $3 75 ₩ hundred.

GRAIN—There is very little wheat in the market, and hardly sufficient transactions to warrant quotations. Prices are entirely nominal. We notice sales of 500 bush No. 2 spring at $2 80, and 1,800 bush mixed at $2 72½ ₩ bush.

CORN—We note sales of 2,500 bushels shelled corn, on private terms; 177 bushels ear, delivered, at 91c, and 160 bushels mixed, on the wharf, at 90c ₩ bushel.

OATS—Sales reported of 250 bushels oats, on the track, at 63c; 175 bushels, from store, at 65c, and 100 bushels do, at 66c per bushel.

RYE—Owing to light receipts there is a firm market for rye. We quote it selling from elevator at $1 45@1 50 per bushel.

HAY—We notice sales of 54 bales, on the wharf, at $25 per ton; 24 bales do at $24; 19 bales do at $22, and 1 car at $25 per ton.

HOPS—The market is poorly supplied, whilst there is a good demand. We quote prices firm at 65@70c.

FEED—We note a sale of 1 car prime middlings at $2 25 per 100

POTATOES—There is considerable activity in the market, as the supply of good potatoes is getting low. We report sales of Peachblows from store at 95c@$1 00 ₩ bush and $3 00 ₩ bbl, and Buckeyes at $4 00 ₩ bbl.

SWEET POTATOES—We note sale of 20 bbls Jersey at $4 ₩ bbl.

SEED—Sales reported from store of 20 bush Flax Seed at $2 90; 16 bush Clover Seed at $12 00 ₩ bush, and Timothy seed at $3 00@3 25.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, April 11.—There is a steady fair inquiry for all staple styles of cotton and woolen goods at prices showing little variation. Fancy and unseasonable styles in cotton, wool or tick are slow of sale, and selling at ruinously low rates; for instance, printed calicos of domestic make on 64 square cloth are selling down to one shilling per yard, and are by no means bad styles; whereas, new styles in stripes or ring patterns on the same cloth, sell quick at 17c, such as American. Heavy brown sheetings, of best makes, are scarce and wanted at 21c; seconds at 20c, and common grades at 19c; the Lawrence C, yard wide sheetings are steady at 20c, and A fine do 15½c, and Bool 1, 7-8 14½c; Pepperell bleached wide sheetings are offered at reduced prices, viz: 6-4, 35c; 8-4, 47½c, and 9-4 57½; 10-4, 77½c; 11-4, 77½c. Our River Correspondence.

CINCINNATI, April 10, 1867.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

The Ezra Porter leaves to-day at 12. Will return to Cincinnati on time, Saturday week. J. H. P.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—Yesterday was a delightful spring day. Business on the landing ought certainly to improve, if only to keep pace with the weather. We have a fine stage of water in both rivers. The Monongahela marks indicate nine feet and falling slowly. Our packets are all making excellent time, punctuality being the order of the day. The Leonora No. 2 is the only boat loading for Nashville. She will have dispatch. The Bayard took her departure for Parkersburg with a fair trip. The packet for to-day is the Leni Leoti, Captain Hamilton. The James Rees left, also, for Matamoras. The new Glendale is announced for the Missouri river this day. Call early and secure a stateroom. The Ida Rees, Capt. Joseph Brown, takes the place of the Maggie Hays, and leaves for Cincinnati and Louisville on Saturday. The Lorena is the regular packet for Cairo and St. Louis. The Silver Lake No. 4 departed for Missouri river direct. She will go through. The Columbia is the only boat loading for the Upper Mississippi. The Robert Moore takes her departure for Portsmouth at 4 P. M. this day. Passengers will be on hand. The Importer is announced for the Upper Mississippi. The towboat Sam Roberts is making ready for another trip to Louisville.

THE steamer Ida Rees, Captain J. Brown, will positively leave for Cincinnati and Louisville on Saturday. This can be relied on. To persons going that way the present opportunity should not be neglected.

THE St. Louis Company want to buy the new towboat Boaz. She is a beauty, and no mistake.

THE Bayard took her departure yesterday for Parkersburg, on time, with a good trip.

THE Parkersburg packet for this day is the steamer Leni Leoti, Captain Hamilton. She leaves at noon. Passengers and shippers can bear this in mind.

LABOR is so scarce at New Orleans that the boats are continually compelled to lay over for want of crews.

THE side-wheel steamer Telegraph is offered for sale. She is in good order and will be sold at a bargain. For particulars see our advertising columns.

THE Sherman and Glasgow were advertised to leave Cincinnati, for this port, on Thursday. Both have excellent trips.

THE steamer Westmoreland, Captain Edward Evans, is loading at Cincinnati for Memphis and New Orleans.

THE tow boat Sam Roberts, was preparing to leave last evening for Louisville with eighty thousand bushels of coal.

THE fine packet Columbia, Captain Reed, is announced for the Upper Mississippi. This boat is well found in every respect, and is in charge of careful and attentive officers.

TUESDAY'S St. Louis Democrat says: The Ida Stockdale, Capt. Grant Master, leaves to-morrow for Fort Benton, and will be followed promptly by the Luella and Carrie.

THE wharf yesterday was bare of tow boats—a rather unusual occurrence. There are, however, plenty on the way. We will soon be in receipt of another fleet. That will make ready for the next rise.

BOATS IN PORT—Bayard, James Rees, Delaware, Lorena, Robert Moore, Glendale, Silver Lake No. 4, Columbia, Maggie Hays, Ida Rees, America, Armenia, Leonora No. 2, Forest City, Peerless, Importer, Nora, Kate Putnam.

THE fine steamer Leonora No 2, Captain Davis, is announced for Nashville on this day. This boat is in complete order, and is well found in every respect. Captain Davis will be found careful and attentive. We take pleasure in saying a good word for boat and officers.

THE favorite packet Ida Rees, Captain Joseph Brown, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville. This boat will go through certain without reshipping. She is well found in every respect, and is in charge of careful and attentive officers. A word to the wise is sufficient.

THE splendid passenger steamer Lorena, Captain S. Shuman, is announced for Cairo and St. Louis. This boat has very superior accommodations, and is in charge of careful and experienced officers. To persons going that way a fine opportunity is presented.

THE new and splendid passenger steamer Glendale, J. M. Hare commander, is announced as an independent packet for St. Louis and the Missouri river. This boat has superior accommodations, and is in charge of careful and attentive officers. Our old friend Mellon does the honors in the office.

THE steamer Ida Rees, Captain Joseph Browne, will take the place of the steamer Maggie Hays as the regular Saturday Cincinnati and Louisville packet, and will leave at five o'clock P. M. Saturday, positively.

ON THE ROCKS.—The tow-boat Collier, with two barges of coal, found a place of rest on Tuesday, on the rocks above the mouth of the canal. She was still sticking there last evening, but "worrying" herself mightily to get off.

THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI.—For a period of thirty years the ice in the river has remained thus late only once. In 1838 till March 24th, in 1844 till April 8th, in 1847 till March 16th, in 1856 till March 29th, in 1857 till March 25th, in 1859 till March 26th, and in 1867 till April 6th.

BOATS IN PORT AT CINCINNATI ON WEDNESDAY.—New York, Shamrock, Wauanita, Silver Cloud No. 2, Lawrence, Camelia, Tahlequah, Nightingale, Lizzie Hopkins, Armadillo, Emma No. 3, Harry Dean, Pine Grove, Swallow, Emperor, Havana, Darling, Westmoreland.

IMPORTANT.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat writes that on the Upper Missouri rich and extensive copper deposits have been discovered in the Valley of Muscleshell, not far from Helena, Montana. This fact will give additional impetus to the Missouri River and mountain trade.

THE favorite passenger packet Robert Moore, Captain W. H. Kerr, leaves this day, positively, at 4 P. M., for Portsmouth and way points. This boat is a large favorite with passengers and shippers, Commander Kerr being the right man in the right place.

THE steamer Sherman has the following Pittsburgh freight on board: 200 sacks flour, 140 bbls clay, and about 40 tons hides and assorted freight. Have a fair passenger trip, and have done considerable way business since leaving St. Louis.

MR. JOHN L. MOOREHOUSE, the agent of the mail line to Brownsville, is one of the cleverest officers of our acquaintance. We have been on intimate terms with him for many years, and take pleasure in recommending him on account of gentlemanly deportment and correct business habits. He will be found at his post of duty at all times, and has a pleasant word for all who may have occasion to transact business with that line. The company can congratulate themselves on making a judicious selection.

DAVENPORT, IOWA, April 6.—It affords us pleasure to announce the prospect as bright for an early resumption of river business. Yesterday afternoon the steamers Southern Belle and Savannah arrived at Rock Island, each with a barge. There is a channel open along the Illinois shore. The bar at the lower end of town, opposite French & Davies's mill, keeps the ice tight here yet. Mild weather, and west wind, and the natural gait of the current will, we hope, soon remedy this matter and steamers can reach this point where the inhabitants will greatly rejoice to hear once more the melody of a steamer's whistle.—Herald.

BUSINESS AT ST. LOUIS, APRIL 9.—Arrivals are numerous, and receipts of produce heavy. There is not sufficient room at the wharf for steamers. A boat from the Mississippi has just brought a heavy load of cattle, tobacco and grain. The Leclaire has arrived from Pittsburgh for the Missouri. She leaves to-morrow, and will run in the packet line between Omaha and Sioux City. The Golden City has arrived from Cincinnati, full of passengers. She will get a good load back. Captain Russell left some days ago for Pittsburgh, to purchase another tow boat for the Mississippi Valley Company. It is thought he may have secured the Boaz for $50,000.

THE ST. LOUIS DEMOCRAT ON THE SITUATION.—The city front was about as quiet as a graveyard. Shipments were quiet to New Orleans, the Missouri, the Ohio, the Arkansas—almost everywhere. Some boatmen are very despondent as to the prospects, while the hopes of others are high. No amount of genius or intelligence will enable any to predict accurately or set down positively the time when tonnage will be too scarce for the demand. It is now as it always has been, except during war times. There are boats running at a loss, and other boats making money by lying idle. We have no Cumberland river packets. That trade is played out. There is about six feet on Harpeth shoals and falling. Our river here is swelling slowly. Upper Mississippi rising, and good water in the other rivers. The river is now open to Dubuque. Large grain receipts due to-day and this week.

THE RICHMOND'S MACHINERY AND BOILERS.—The Louisville Courier and Democrat denied our statement in regard to the machinery of the Richmond. Here is what the Louisville Journal says: As there were some errors in our report of the boilers of the Richmond as published in our paper last week, we now give a revised and more accurate statement. Five of the boilers, as well as the machinery, were taken out of the well-known low-pressure steamer Jacob Strader, and were made at Cincinnati expressly for that boat in 1860. They were made of stamped boiler plates of the best quality, cylindrical, and 63 inches in diameter; were well and thoroughly examined when put on the Richmond, and found to be not in the slightest degree injured by the service they had performed on the Strader. One of them (being the sixth), of like form and construction, was made in Madison, Ind., in 1867. If the Richmond worked high-pressure she would be entitled to but seventy pounds of steam; as it is low-pressure, the maximum amount of steam allowed to be carried in the boilers is but forty pounds.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, April 5.—The Father of Waters is on the rise at this point, brightening the prospect of relieving the ferryboat from her precarious condition.

The river is reported clear of ice between Clinton and East Davenport.

At Davenport the ice is gorged at and above the bridge, and the river is not yet open in front of the city.

The steamer Keithsburg passed down yesterday afternoon, en route for Fort Madison. She was enabled to get up the river only as far as Rockingham, three miles this side of Davenport. She will be up again this evening.

The Muscatine arrived from St. Louis this afternoon, with a good trip of passengers, though but little freight. Her officers report navigation obstructed between this place and St. Louis.

Two men undertook to cross the river in a skiff at Dubuque the other day, and came near being drowned. After proceeding a short distance from this shore the boat capsized. Assistance came in time to save them from a watery grave.—Journal.
